Paryavaran Sanrakshan Gatividhi organized “Environment Youth Forum-2021” during January 2021. More than 25,000 participants including students & parents, Faculty members, Directors, Principals, and Vice-Chancellors from various 275 affiliated colleges and Universities were been involved in this Forum.

Gujarat Technological University (GTU) had hosted Level 1 Prelims for “Environment Youth Forum 2021” on 12th January 2021 on the Birth Anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. The event was blessed by the august presence of Prof. (Dr.) Navin Sheth, Vice-Chancellor, GTU. The event was also graced by Prof. (Dr.) Sanjay Chauhan, Director, Gujarat Innovation Council, GTU; Dr. A. M. Prabhakar, Principal, Gujarat Power Engineering & Research Institute (GPERI); Shri Gopal Arya Ji, Central Team Leader, Paryavaran Sanrakshan Gatividhi. Total 72 students from different GTU affiliated Institutes had registered for this event. Few of them had presented their discussion on various themes of “Environment and Sustainability” during this event. Mr. Dharmendra Vyas, Manager, Abellon CleanEnergy Ltd., Ahmedabad, and Dr. Nandita Soni, Assistant Professor, College of Science & Technology, Bhagwan Mahavir University, Surat were juries of the panel to adjudge the winners. It is a matter of pride for GPERI and GTU that Students of GPERI Gajjar Shreya Manojkumar and Patel Rituben Rajeshbhai from First Year Computer Engineering Department won this prelim and represented at Level 2 Semi-Finals at Regional Level (Gujarat & Maharashtra) held on 23rd January 2021.

Semi-Final for "Environment Youth Forum 2021" had been hosted by Gujarat Technological University on 23rd January 2021 on the Birth Anniversary of Neta Ji Subhash Chandra Bose. Mr. Ambarish Dave, Senior Principal Engineer, SAI Consulting Engineers Pvt. Ltd., Ahmedabad was invited as a chief guest of the event. Students from different Universities of Gujarat had presented their discussion on "Harit Ghar: Sustainable Homes for Sustainable Environment" during this event. Dr. Devang Shah, Team Lead, Environment Division, Mark Procon Pvt. Ltd., Vadodara and Dr. Hitesh Mehta, Assistant Professor & Environmental Nodal Officer, Department of Biotechnology, Faculty of Science and Humanity, Smt. S. S. Patel Nootan Science & Commerce College, Sankalchand Patel University were juries of the panel to adjudge the winners. It is again a matter of pride for GPERI and GTU that Gajjar Shreya Manojkumar from First Year Computer Engineering Department, GPERI won this Semi-Final and represented on behalf of GTU as a team member of Zone-3 (Gujarat & Maharashtra) at Grand Finale at National Level held on 26th January 2021.

Manav Rachna International Institute of Research and Studies (MRIIRS) had hosted the Grand Finale for "Environment Youth Forum 2021" on 26th January 2021, the 72nd Republic day of India. 24 Students from various states of India had presented their discussion on "Paryavaran Chetna: Environment and Sustainability" during this event. The event was graced by the august presence of Dr. Sanjay Srivastava, Vice-Chancellor, MRIIRS, and Dr. NC Wadhwa, I.A.S. (Retd.), Director-General, Manav Rachna Educational Institutions. We feel proud of Gajjar Shreya Manojkumar for extending her discussion on "Environmental Collaborative Solutions" as a Student of GPERI and GTU during the Grand Finale.

The Award Ceremony was hosted by MRIIRS on 27th January 2021. The event was graced and blessed by the august presence of Shri Prakash Javadekar, Honorable Union Minister of Environment, Forest and Climate Change, Government of India. Ms. Arya Chavda, the youngest Environmentalist; Shri Prashant Bhalla Ji, Chancellor, MRIIRS, Shri Rakesh Jain Ji; National Sah Sanyojak, Paryavaran Sanrakshan Gatividhi; Dr. H. D. Charan Ji, Vice-Chancellor, Bikaner Technical University; Dr. Sanjay Jain Ji, Chancellor, Bhagwan Mahavir University also addressed during the event and motivated participants to work for our mother Earth.

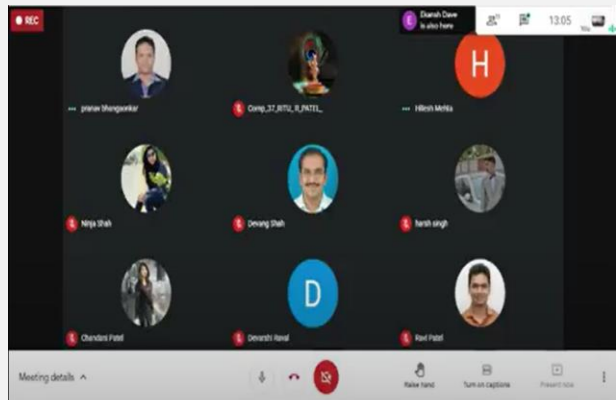

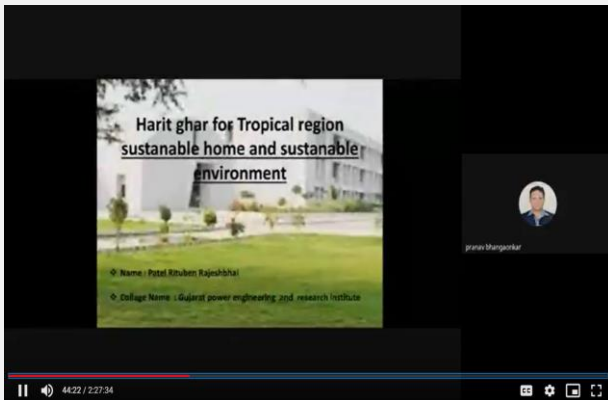

GPERI and GTU congratulate winners of Prelims and Semi-Finals and also encourage all students who participated in this Forum.
